this book is a concise treatise on the path to conscious awareness of our lord the muslim tradition considers this the primary reason for our existence and the means by which we are ensured continued succor from our creator this classic volume elucidates a simple yet effective means to transform our inner world through spiritual struggle with our soul the present book aims to take on this challenge by looking at the major problems from these various aspects as just mentioned obviously one short book can hardly address all these problems and suggest solutions without certain simplifications and potentially controversial assertions nevertheless it can hope to present a systematic analysis and suggested prognosis based on a coherent philosophy as indicated above nothing is more needed in our times and second to spiritual weakening the greatest problem of all facing the islamic world and indeed the whole world is lack of understanding of the true natures and essences of things this book examines our times from an islamic philosophical worldview looking at the problems facing the islamic world in the near past present and future respectively in three mutually complementary parts at the end of each part it suggests holistic and easily applied remedies to the problems it examines in other words and for those who enjoy sonorous german and greek philosophical terms it examines the zeitgeist from the weltanschauung of islam and suggests panaceas prince ghazi bin muhammad has written a number of books and guides for thinking people and this small but potent work before you sums up many of his most keen and cogent insights and conclusions for that reason this may be his most impactful and motivational work to date examining muslim neo traditionalist scholars in the west and their community of young seekers of sacred knowledge walaa quisay explores the emerging trend within anglo american islam that emphasises the importance of tradition this book focuses on spiritual retreats hosted by three main shaykhs hamza yusuf abdal hakim murad and umar faruq abd allah to examine how religious authority is formed and affirmed through interviews with seekers who have attended retreats the author sheds light on how discourses are shaped and practised and analyses how neo traditionalist shaykhs construct the notion of tradition concerning what they perceive to have been lost in modernity the book highlights the importance of neo traditionalism in the changing conceptions of religious orthodoxy religious authority and spirituality for young muslims in the west and quisay examines the political implications to the shaykhs critiques of modernity as it pertains to political quietism race and gender drawing on scholarly and life experience on and over the historically posited borders between west and east the work identifies interrogates and challenges a particular enduring violent inheritance what it means to cross over a border from the classical origins of western political thought the study has two parts the first is an effort to work within the western tradition to demonstrate its foundational and enduring violent conception of crossing over borders the second is a creative effort to explore and encourage a fundamentally different outlook towards borders and what it means to be on at or over them the underlying social theoretical disposition of the work is a form of post orientalist hermeneutics the textual subject matter of the two parts of the study is linked using walter benjamin s concept of the storyteller the underlying premise of the work is that the sense of violent possibility on the borders between west and east existed well before the more recent age of imperialism and even before there was a west or an east to speak of that sense is constitutive of a political imagination about borders developed deep within the revered sources of western culture on the other hand confronting the influence of such violent imaginaries requires truly novel modes of hermeneutical openness hospitality and solidarity seeking to offer a new understanding and opening in the study of borders this work will provide a significant contribution to several areas including international relations theory border studies and political theory despite the current negative image of islam in europe there has been a steady growth of converts to islam over the past few decades british converts are a highly diverse group with different social economic and educational backgrounds recently this group has grown in confidence and become increasingly active in influencing positive islamic discourse in britain the book sheds light on the intellectual and spiritual contributions of some of the prominent figures of this group of new muslims and assesses their efforts in shaping islam in british society including martin lings gai eaton tim winter and hamza yusuf the research investigates the potential benefit new muslims can bring to bridge the gap between muslim communities and wider british society thus helping in the process of building mutual trust greater cooperation and positive understanding among all parties in britain the work will help readers to become aware of the evolution of a british islam that is more open rooted in british values and spiritual traditions and forms a part of the continually changing british religious landscape
